

The Welsh Language Commissioner's activities

Rhondda Cynon Taf National Eisteddfod 3-10 August

Every day

Plenty of activities for everyone, including a Cynnig Cymraeg treasure hunt and an interactive map of Welsh place names.

Monday

11:00: Promoting the Welsh language effectively through regulation. Cymdeithasau (Societies tent).

A discussion on how to ensure that organisations are fully compliant with Welsh language standards, and what can be done to better promote and facilitate the provision offered.

Tuesday

10:30-11:00 a 14:30-15:00: Activities with Arad Goch.

Open your imagination, and join us for a fun drama and acting workshop led by Ffion Wyn Bowen from Cwmni Theatr Arad Goch. Suitable for ages 6-12 years old.

12:00-12:30: Launching a partnership between the National Centre for Learning Welsh and the Cynnig Cymraeg Scheme

Wednesday

10:00: Mindfulness session with Tenovus.

An opportunity to learn how to notice what is happening in the present, in terms of your body, your thoughts and the environment.

12:00 a 15:00: Using the Welsh language in businesses and charities. Come for a chat with the Welsh Language Commissioner's Hybu (Promotion) team and the Helo Blod team to hear how we can help businesses and charities to use more of the Welsh language.

Thursday

10:00: Mindfulness session with Tenovus.

An opportunity to learn how to notice what is happening in the present, in terms of your body, your thoughts and the environment.

14:00: Launching the Welsh Language Commissioner's charity of the year.

Friday

11:00, 13:00, a 15:00: Activities with Canolfan Bedwyr.

An opportunity to learn about ARFer's brand new app which aims to increase the use of the Welsh language in the workplace.

The app will ensure easy access to a framework that has proven to be highly effective. Come along for a chat and to learn more about the development of the app.
